International Classroom Experience

Students with international classroom experience could receive credit as an elective in the major. Students would be allowed to receive up to 6 credits of Horticulture 400 and the student’s advisor would make the determination on what would be required for coursework.